IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF

HIDALGO COUNTY, TEXAS

____TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

STANDING PRETRIAL ORDER CONCERNING
HIDALGO COUNTY RESIDENTIAL HAIL CLAIMS

It is hereby ORDERED that the 93rd, 206th and 370th District Courts of Hidalgo County, Texas, have been appointed as the Consolidated Pretrial Courts over Hidalgo Hail Litigation filed in District Court in Hidalgo County, Texas. The 93rd, 206th and 370th District Courts of Hidalgo County, Texas, have been assigned to handle all pretrial matters for residential property insurance cases filed in the District Courts of Hidalgo County, Texas that involve insurance disputes arising out of hail storms that struck Hidalgo County on or about March 29, 2012 and April 20, 2012.

IT IS ACCORDINGLY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

- A. This Order shall be affective and apply to all lawsuits filed in the District Court of Hidalgo County, Texas wherein any policyholder (the "Plaintiff Insured") asserts a claim arising from damage to residential property caused by the 2012 Hail Storms that struck Hidalgo County on or about March 29, 2012 and April 20, 2012, against an insurance carrier who issues insurance policies for residential property (the "Residential Insurance Carrier"); and
- B. Immediately upon the filing of this Order, the District Clerk shall post this Order on the Hidalgo County District Courts' website. Any Plaintiff who is aware of this Order shall attach a copy of this Order to its Original Petition, or to otherwise send a copy of this Order to any party, if pro se, or to such party's counsel of record.
- C. Within one hundred (100) days after the Residential Insurance Carrier makes an appearance in the lawsuit or the date of this Order, whichever is later, all parties are Ordered to agree on a mediator and mediation date. However, the mediation can be set to occur outside of this time period. Once the parties have agreed on a mediator and mediation date, they shall notify the Court by filing the attached Mediation Order (Exhibit "A"). If the parties make an agreement around the timing in this provision, the parties must obtain approval of their agreement from the Court.
- D. Immediately upon the filing of the Residential Insurance Carrier's Original Answer, the case will be abated until (1) 30 days after unsuccessful mediation or (2) notice by any party that the party desires to unilaterally end the abatement period applicable to a particular case 30 days from the date the notice is received by the opposing party. The abatement period will apply to all Court ordered deadlines or Rule 190 Discovery deadlines. The abatement period will not apply to any statutory deadline, interest or penalties that may apply under any statutory code or law. The parties may send written discovery during the abatement time period, however, the responses and objections to those discovery requests will not be due until 30 days after the earlier of an unsuccessful mediation or a party's termination of the abatement period.

- E. Furthermore, within 60 days of the filing of the Insurance Carrier's Original Answer or the date of this Order, whichever is later, the parties will use their best efforts to exchange information and documentation pertaining to the residence, to the extent same exists, including the following: Expert Reports, Engineering Reports, Estimates of Damage or repairs; Contents Lists for contents damage claim; Photographs; Repair Receipts or Invoices; the non-privileged portions of the Residential Insurance Carrier and Adjusting Company's claims file (including all claim diary notes, activity logs, loss notes and email correspondence regarding the insurance claim); payment ledger, payment log and/or proof of payment from the Insurance Carrier; a copy of the insurance policy in effect at the time of the respective Hail claim(s); and the non-privileged portions of the underwriting file. If the Insurance Carrier is not in possession of the Adjusting Company's/Adjuster's claims file, and the Adjusting Company/Adjuster is not a named as a party in the lawsuit represented by separate counsel, then the Insurance Carrier shall seek the Adjusting Company's claims file and use their best efforts to exchange this information within the 60 day time period. The Insurance Carrier is also Ordered to notify the independent adjusting company that all emails, activity notes and loss diary notes pertaining to the Hail claim in litigation shall be preserved and not destroyed pursuant to the Court's "Save & Hold" directive regarding those emails and claims correspondence. Lastly, a privilege log will also be produced in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure for any redactions or privileges being asserted on any documents in the claims file or claim correspondence.
- F. Any Expert Reports, Engineering Reports, Contractor Estimates or any other estimates of damages or repairs obtained by directive of Counsel for settlement, demand, or mediation purposes and exchanged prior to mediation shall be for "Mediation Purposes Only" and shall be considered confidential, except that any estimates and/or reports that are part of the claims file, which were obtained or prepared during the claims handling, shall not be considered confidential under this paragraph. Otherwise, such reports and estimates exchanged for mediation purposes shall only be used at trial if Plaintiff or Defendant designates the consultant as a retained testifying expert and does not properly de-designate prior to trial. If a consultant, whose report is produced at mediation, produces a subsequent report for use at trial, the mediation report shall remain confidential unless agreed to otherwise. The reports and estimates are only confidential for the lawsuit in which they are being used. Expert reports designated for mediation purposes shall be returned to the providing party within 14 days of a written request by the providing party for their return after mediation. Such reports shall not be discoverable or admissible at trial or any hearing. If the party procuring the report designates the expert to testify, such party shall have the right to prevent discovery or testimony by the expert regarding the mediation report and any opinions therein. The procuring party may use data such as measurements and photographs without waiving this privilege. Nothing herein shall prohibit the use of those reports and estimates in any subsequent insurance claims or lawsuits involving the same Residential Insurance Carrier.

- G. Once a mediation date and mediator are agreed to by all parties, the Residential Insurance Carrier shall be permitted to inspect the residence involved in the lawsuit (as soon as practicable) prior to mediation. If mediation is unsuccessful, the Residential Insurance Carrier and other Defendants may reinspect the residence with the same, new or additional experts pursuant to the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.
- H. The Mediator shall notify the Court within 48 hours once an impasse has been declared by the Mediator. This notice shall be in writing and sent to all parties and the Court.
- I. Upon the expiration of the abatement period applicable to the case (30 days) the parties will enter into an Agreed Scheduling Order, which will include a date for trial.
- J. The Court shall set a Status Conference to occur on each case under this Order 150 days from the date the Original Petition was filed and provide written notice to all parties of the date and time of the Status Conference.

MEDIATION ORDER

This case is hereby ORDERED to mediation by no later than _____, 2009. The parties have suggested the Court appoint the following mediator, and pursuant to such agreement, the Court hereby appoints _____.

An attorney of record is ORDERED to attend for each party. All individual parties, either Plaintiff or Defendant, are ORDERED to attend; except that Individual Defendant Adjusters and Insurer Employee Defendants are not ordered to attend, but a representative with full authority to negotiate and settle their case on their behalf is ORDERED to attend. A representative of each non-individual party is ORDERED to attend unless the parties agree otherwise. Each party or party representative so attending must be vested with the authority to enter into a final settlement agreement. If there is insurance, a person who has full authority to decide whether insurance payments will be made must attend.

The parties are further ORDERED to BE PREPARED IN ADVANCE for the mediation. The parties must comply with the document production requirements as set forth in the Standing Case Management Order and in the manner prescribed by the Standing Case Management Order.

Counsel shall negotiate openly and knowledgeable; failure to negotiate in good faith, may be treated as contempt. All individuals ordered to attend must remain in attendance until the mediator declares the mediation concluded, subject only to recess as declared by the mediator. Failure to appear or to remain without timely seeking relief may be sanctioned as contempt. All settlement discussions shall be subject to Texas Rule of Evidence 408 and Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code 154.073.
