WIC – Women, Infants and Children Program

The Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children, popularly known as WIC, is a nutrition program that helps pregnant women, new mothers and young children eat well, learn about nutrition, and stay healthy. WIC provides nutrition education and counseling, nutritious foods, and help accessing health care for low-income women, infants, and children.

Got WIC?

- Are you pregnant?
- Are you breastfeeding a baby under 1 year of age?
- Are you a woman who has had a baby in the past six months?
- Are you a parent, a step-parent, guardian, or a foster parent of an infant and/or a child under the age of five? If yes, you can apply.

Eligibility Requirements

- Meet the income guidelines.
- Be at nutritional risk.
- Live in Texas.

Current proof of Medicaid, SNAP and TANF accepted

U.S. Citizenship is not a requirement for eligibility.

WIC benefits are not subject to Public Charge Consideration.
